ST. PETERSBURG IS CLAIMING VICTORY

Jubilation in Russian Capital Over News That Kuropatkin Has Resumed Offensive--Evening Papers Issue Extras Announcing "Great Russian Victory." Fears for Troops Across the Shakhe.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 18.—[By Associated Press.] There is jubilation throughout the city over the news that General Kuropatkin has resumed the offensive, and the belief, which began with Tokio heart, closed brighter.

The crowds in the streets and the illuminations in honor of the emperor's name day gave a tinge of holiday to everything otherwise forbidding, through a constant current of rain.

Claimed Russian Victory.

Newsboys on the streets cried through the rain extra editions announcing "Great Russian victory" and crowds bought the papers.

Groups of men in military uniforms of all evening dress excitedly and earnestly discussed the change in the appearance of war, but the populace as a whole went about its daily life. They had received the news of the victory with serious mien, and were not accepting reports of Russian successes and the capture of guns calmly, with satisfaction, but with considerable reserve.

Correspondents at the front for the Associated Press had been hinting that the Shakhe army was on the eve of another advance, but it was thought here that the troops were too exhausted by more than a week of nearly uninterrupted engagements to undertake an advance movement. Therefore the news of the definite resumption of the advance was calculated to arouse the greater satisfaction, but the realization of the significance of news proceeding the nature here more slowly than in American cities.

People Not Excited.

The Liaoyang engagements on the Shakhe river have been the result for the people to follow and as the battle lines from day to day remained quiet in the last interval accepted as [illegible] It is believed that General Kuropatkin intended to signalize the czarevitch's name day by a victory.

The failure of the war office to give the detailed losses in the battle, the reader's consideration disheartening. The Associated Press, however, learns on good authority that the empire has received a dispatch from General Kuropatkin announcing that the Russians are moving forward.

Another Associated Press dispatch from Mukden confirms the news of the Russian advance when interviewed a [illegible] the correspondent was told: "It is supposed that we are moving ahead."

Forces on Shakhe River.

There is no official confirmation here of the report from Tokio that a Russian attack on the Japanese right on October 17 had been repulsed. If this report should be true it may involve serious consequences for the Russians who crossed the Shakhe while the river was fordable. According to the Associated Press Mukden dispatches the Russian forces are in command of the high ground, and therefore it would be well nigh impossible for the Russian army to recross the river owing to the absence of bridges. It would be equally difficult for the same reason to bring up supplies and ammunition to enable General Kuropatkin to follow up the advance. This may explain the statement in a Mukden dispatch to the Associated Press that the fighting was slackening on the morning of October 18.

BATTLE OF SHAKHE RIVER THE BLOODIEST IN HISTORY

Mukden, Oct. 17.—[Delayed.]—The continual darkness and the complaints about generally the serious acceptance by the [illegible] appear to [illegible] promises further fighting, although there has been already the days of most concerted and exhaustive combats.

The Japanese have been determined during the Russian center and left flank holding the Russians in front, while pushing the forces [illegible] the line of attack. The Japanese evidently desired that the Russian advance would develop a superior force of reserves.

The duration of the contest already exceeds by several days the common prophecy, as it was believed that neither side was capable of such expenditure of men and ammunition which already has been in excess of all the previous fighting within 15 miles of Liao-yang.

The roads south and southwest of Mukden are filled with refugee native families, trailing homeless toward the [illegible] streets of Mukden. The floods have subsided. The army is so near that the environs of the city have been [illegible] up a sapping fire and render the work of relief difficult and dangerous. The fighting today slackened considerably, owing to rains and the impassable condition [illegible]

Mukden, Oct. 18.—Lone Tree hill, won by the Russians after a desperate struggle, was the object of a gallant and [illegible]

In spite of the awful [illegible] driven from the hill, the Japanese returned to the charge during the night of October 17, reoccupying that the advantage the key to the position on the southeast front. Nine consecutive [illegible] repeated sweeping up through the night [illegible] Lone Tree hill had been fought and [illegible] the Japanese were driven back with [illegible] casualties.

BATTLEFIELD OF LONE TREE HILL PRESENTS AWFUL SIGHT

Fidyatun (six miles east of Shakhe), Oct. 18.—Fighting still continues almost all along the whole front. The Japanese have made an unsuccessful attempt to [illegible] Lone Tree hill. The Japanese infantry met several attacks and repulsed them all. Heavy rains continue. There was a terrific cannonading last night. Everyone is terribly exhausted [illegible]

The battlefield of Lone Tree hill presents an indescribable spectacle. The ground is strewn with broken rifles that had been smashed in hand-to-hand fighting.

Everything seems to have been utilized as weapons.

The Russian centers are making [illegible] attempt to move to the west to [illegible] who still surround the [illegible] army.

ROYAL GORGE BRIDGE AT CANON CITY IS SWEPT AWAY BY FLOOD.

ROADS ARE WASHED OUT IN MANY PLACES AND TRAFFIC IS SUSPENDED.

Canon City, Oct. 18.—It is reported that the Fremont county bridge across the Arkansas river at Parkdale, 15 miles west of this city, has been swept away by the high water.

The current of water flowing in the Arkansas is not known, but it is between 50,000 and 100,000. A copy of the annual report of Booker T. Washington, the head of this institute was received by the Gazette yesterday and contains an account of the dedication of this building which, at General Palmer's suggestion has been named "Frederick Dodge Hall" in honor Charles D. Dodge, a son of him after whom the building is named, delivered the dedicatory address. The gift was made years ago, but the structure has but recently been completed.

With characteristic modesty, Gen. Palmer kept the matter of his donation to this great school for colored men and women a secret and it has just leaked out.

AUTO RACES WILL TAKE PLACE TODAY

Mr. W. H. Pierce, owner of "999," Mr. Jed Newkirk the greatest auto racer in the business; Mr. Fred Bailey, business manager, and several thousand people were greatly disappointed yesterday at the sudden change in the weather, which precluded the automobile races at Roswell park. However, the meet will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

By way of a little variation, Newkirk took a party of friends through the Garden of the Gods and the canons yesterday afternoon in a large local racing machine from the Anilere Automobile company's stables. Members of the party stated last night that the trip would long be remembered, as it was the nearest approach to flying through the air that they had ever experienced.

What appeared to be hair-breath escapes by the autoists produced only a smile from Newkirk, and his trick of turning sharp curves on two wheels caused a small panic among the other occupants of the car.

There will be a parade of automobiles this afternoon, headed by a band, and at 3 o'clock the races at Roswell will begin. The following gentlemen have been chosen to serve as officials at the meet: Messrs. F. W. Genter, L. E. Skinner, Robert Miller, A. S. Pinks, E. A. Colburn Jr., G. T. Merrick and C. H. Strong.

DROVE AUTOMOBILE 4,100 MILES WITHOUT ACCIDENT

After an absence of over three months Mr. W. H. Price returned from an automobile trip which covered over 4,100 miles yesterday night.

One of the original party of four gentlemen who left Colorado Springs early last summer to tour the east in an auto car, Mr. Price is the only one to make the entire trip as per programme schedule. Leaving Cleveland to which city Mr. Price's Winton Quad had been sent, the trip led to New York, Saratoga, Philadelphia, Atlantic City, Baltimore, Pittsburg, Columbus, Indianapolis, St. Louis, Kansas City, Topeka, as well as smaller cities, before it came to Colorado Springs.

The trip from St. Louis to this city was made by Mr. Price accompanied by Mr. Fred Swift, a chauffeur for Mr. Samuel Pierce. During the entire journey of 4,100 miles, Mr. Price did all of the driving.

No effort to make a record for fast running was attempted, the longest day's trip being 195 miles, including considerable time lost by building a bridge over a small but impassable stream.

"We were extremely fortunate during the whole trip," said Mr. Price last night, "and had no trouble other than the ordinary little repairs. Two tires were worn out and had to be replaced, but the other pair was not even punctured. The roads were generally good except a few bad stretches in Missouri and between Philadelphia and Baltimore. The trip was a most enjoyable one."

The original party was composed of Mr. Price, Mr. Lane, Dr. Bartlett and Mr. Bonday. Mr. Lane returned to Colorado Springs at the beginning of the trip owing to the death of his brother, and Mr. Bonday and Dr. Bartlett joined in the east on business matters, leaving Mr. Price to make the return from St. Louis to Colorado Springs.

BOWLING RECORD BROKEN BY STANDARD CLUB TEAM

The Standard club team broke all local bowling records last night in its match with the Robbins team by rolling a score of 3,269 pins. Incidentally, they won from their opponents by the small margin of 423 pins.

The Standard club men started out at a fast clip and rolled a total of 1,009 in the first game, an average of 200 for each man. Ketzenberger was the star bowler, his lowest game being 207 and his highest 228. His total of 671 for the three is but nine pins below the record set by Calland of the Gazette team and places him second for high average in the City league.

Neiswanger, Myers, Davies and Ketzenberger were the ten men that night and a great deal of enthusiasm prevailed during the match. The Santiago Mea and Hennessy's are scheduled to play on the Crescent alleys. Last night's score:

BURNS MAY MANAGE PHILADELPHIA TEAM

Owner of Local Club Goes to New York to Attend Meeting and Secure Players for Next Season.

Thomas F. Burns, owner of the Millionaires, left yesterday morning for the east where he will attend the annual meeting of the National baseball association, to be held in New York October 25, 26 and 27. Representatives of the minor leagues will be in attendance at the meeting.

There are many predictions that the coming meeting will produce some hot discussion, as it is said that the new ...ue leagues are planning to cause trouble among the minors. The chief contention is that the major organizations ...ake to run the whole show, while the ...minors want to have a little to say in the matter of settling their own troubles. Changes in the make-up of the Western league will also probably be discussed at the meeting.

Mr. Burns, while in the east, will ...bt probably sign a new team to represent Colorado Springs next season, the majority of the men to be secured from the big leagues. He has also received an offer to manage the Philadelphia (National) league team next season, and while by the east will decide whether to remain with Colorado Springs or assume charge of a major league team.

REGISTRATION WAS SOURCE OF TROUBLE

DEMOCRATIC OFFICEHOLDERS ATTEMPTED TO REGISTER VOTERS WITHOUT HAVING REGULAR POLL BOOKS.

Special to the Gazette.

Victor, Oct. 18.—The registration which was moved to outside precincts yesterday, came very near causing trouble in this city today.

It appears that the Democratic officeholders who control the registration constructed the outside deputies to register people on slips of paper, which were to be taken to the county clerk's office in Cripple Creek, where the names would be transferred to the regular books.

Shortly after this was done in this city the Republicans saw the opportunity thus afforded the Democrats to make a wholesale padding of the registration rolls. They immediately complained and after a parley the Democratic officials consented to have the names in this city.

During the afternoon and evening over 700 names were enrolled in this city. Fully three-fourths are Republicans.

WALTER ARRESTED

Man Charged With Non-Support by His Wife Is Brought Back From Grand Junction.

Special to the Gazette.

Cripple Creek, Oct. 18.—Deputy sheriff Sedgewood returned this morning from Grand Junction, accompanied by Fred Walter, who is charged by his wife, a resident of this city, with non-support.

Walter left suddenly last week, leaving his wife to suffer financial embarrassment. She made a complaint to the sheriff's office, and a systematic search was made for the runaway, which day before yesterday he was apprehended, on a visit from the local officers.

Walter is confined in the county jail, where he will remain until the return of the deputy district attorney, when he will have a preliminary hearing on the charge of failure to provide for his wife.

The prisoner was for some time a resident of Victor. Before coming to Cripple Creek he had left as a sergeant of company B, Second regiment, of that city.

Cripple Creek, Oct. 18.—Flurries of snow, accompanied by strong winds has been the order of the day in Cripple Creek by the weather man. While the thermometer registered in the 40's all today was one of the most disagreeable witnessed in the district for many months.

Reports from outlying districts indicate quite a heavy fall of snow, causing considerable suffering among cattle. But some of the finest weather of the year may be expected between this and the new year.

The telegraph companies report that several wires of both the Western Union and the Postal are down between this city and Denver. No suffering from the storm is reported so far.

[illegible] Massachusetts, Jan. 18th, 1904.

Dear Sir:

"Ever since I was in the army, I had more or less kidney trouble, and within the past year it became so severe and complicated that I suffered everything and was much alarmed—my strength and power was fast leaving me. I saw an advertisement of Swamp-Root and wrote asking for advice. I began the use of the medicine and noted a decided improvement after taking Swamp-Root only a short time.

I continued its use and am thankful to say that I am entirely cured and strong. In order to be very sure about this, I had a doctor examine some of my water today, and he pronounced it all right, and in splendid condition.

I know that your Swamp-Root is purely vegetable and does not contain any harmful drugs. Thanking you for the complete recovery and recommending Swamp-Root to all sufferers, I am, Very truly yours,

A "MEETER" BY PROFESSION

A LITTLE MAN OF FIVE FEET MAKES ALL OF FRONTMAN'S STARS AND ARRANGES EVERYTHING.

There is a certain man in New York or somewhere else, who has been called as the star of Frank Mandeville's company of Charles Frohman's great combination, but he is not going to appear with the organization. Well, then, who is he? Why, he is the manager of the company, and he is a little man, only five feet high, and he is known as the "meeter" by profession. He is the man who meets all the stars and arranges everything. He is the man who makes the contracts with the theatres, and he is the man who looks after the baggage and the railroad tickets. He is the man who sees that the star gets to the theatre on time, and he is the man who sees that the star gets away from the theatre on time. He is the man who sees that the star gets to the railroad station on time, and he is the man who sees that the star gets away from the railroad station on time. He is the man who sees that the star gets to the hotel on time, and he is the man who sees that the star gets away from the hotel on time. He is the man who sees that the star gets to the theatre on time, and he is the man who sees that the star gets away from the theatre on time. He is the man who sees that the star gets to the railroad station on time, and he is the man who sees that the star gets away from the railroad station on time. He is the man who sees that the star gets to the hotel on time, and he is the man who sees that the star gets away from the hotel on time.

MOTHER OF MRS. ONG FAINTED WHEN SHE HEARD TESTIMONY

Dramatic Scene in Court Room When Witness Was on Stand—Many Attorneys Employed on Case.

The case of Mrs. Jessie Ong vs. Dr. Frank N. Cochem was started in the civil division of the district court yesterday before Judge Robert E. Lewis.

It is a sensational case, on the defendant is one of the best known and most highly respected physicians and surgeons of the state. He has been for some time surgeon of the Mis-Grande railroad, in charge of the company hospital at Salida, and he is accused of alienating the affections of Mrs. Ong's husband and of being guilty of a statutory crime. Mrs. Ong asks for $50,000 damages.

Mrs. Ong's mother, who was in the court room, was overcome by the shortness of the testimony and the strain upon her in being compelled to listen to the case that she fainted and had to be carried out of the court room. She was taken to the sheriff's office, where she was revived and was later conveyed to her hotel.

Judge Gunnell, Attorney A. K. Yeomans of this city, and Attorney Murphy, of Denver, and Attorney E. L. Holland, of this city, are defending. Attorney Richardson's cross-examination of Mrs. Ong yesterday was the feature of the trial. He was vigorous and pecking, at times revealing kinks in edge of facts, which, apparently Mrs. Ong did not suspect he knew.

The case is being closely followed by local attorneys and others. It was originally started in Denver, where Mrs. Ong lives, but was transferred to this county on a change of venue. Dr. Cochem's attorney desired a change of venue to Saguache and Mrs. Ong's attorney insisted on Denver, but a compromise was reached and Colorado Springs was chosen. The case will last probably all week, as there are numerous witnesses for both sides, it is understood.

Mrs. Ong will be placed on the stand again this morning for further cross-examination.

WELL CONTROLLED REACTION IN STOCKS

DUE TO SELLING TO TAKE PROFITS ON THE RISE—MORE DISPOSITION MANIFEST TO SELL. LONDON A SELLER

New York, Oct. 19.—A well-controlled reaction was the result of today's stock market, due to selling to take profits on the rise. The control was maintained by the letting of various special stocks down to the resulting sales. The market was best irregular rather than weak in this way, but the influence of comment on sentiment was not to serve as favorable, and there was more disposition manifest to sell. The result was a general readjustment, due partly to the fact that the recent large gains of holdings had been effected, partly from the strong realization of those which have resorted for profits on the upward bulk market. In the final hour the selling was quite general. At the close the market was heavy. Trading was in small volume.

The upward movement in St. Paul was not widely participated, even when it did register some new records of prices. The Northern Securities issues, while they rose, lagged behind the rise in Great Northern. The movement in Union Pacific was also confined to the record of the day's operations, and the Southwestern issues were dull and heavy. Reading was a notable exception to the downward drift.

Reactions in coppers and local issues were of small importance. Trade reports were unchanged. Current earnings were unchanged on call.
